

HARYANA LABOUR WELFARE BOARD

A INTRODUCTION

For the purpose of administering the Labour Welfare Fund and for performing such other functions as are assigned under the Punjab Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1965, the Haryana Labour Welfare Board has been established and constituted by the Haryana Government under Section 4 of the said Act and Rules made thereunder. The various statutory provisions have been made under the said Act for the constitution of Board such as (viz) nomination of the members, terms of office of members, casual vacancies, resignation and power of the State Government to remove members from the office, procedures of the meetings of the Board etc. The unpaid accumulations which remain unclaimed with the establishments in Haryana have to be deposited as per Section 9 of the Act by the concerned employers within two years as unpaid amount with the Board. Besides unpaid accumulations, Section 9A of the Act requires each employer and employee to contribute ten rupees and five rupees per month respectively. The fund is utilized by the Board for the welfare of industrial workers and their family members through different welfare schemes formulated under Section 10 of ibid Act. The Board's Head Office is located at 30-Bays Building, Room No. 51, 2nd Floor, Sector 17, Chandigarh. The Labour Commissioner, Haryana is designated as Welfare Commissioner of the Board who is the Principal Executive Officer of the Board.

B Constitution of Board:

The present setup of the Board is as under:- (The term of board end w.e.f. 13-12-2009. The process for constitution of new board is under action.)

Official Members:

2	Pt. Ram Swarup Jaanbaaz	Vice-Chairman
3	Financial Commissioner and Principal Secretary to Government Haryana, Labour and Employment Department	Vice-Chairman (With financial powers)
4	Labour Commissioner, Haryana	Member- Secretary

Representative of the Employers:

To be nominated.

Representative of Employees:

To be nominated.

C Functions of the Board:

There are mainly two functions of the Board as under:-

1. Collection of Revenue: The Board collects unpaid accumulations from employers under Section 9 of the Punjab Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1965. The unpaid accumulations which remain unclaimed with the establishments in Haryana have to be deposited by the concerned employers within two years as unpaid amount with the Board. The Board keeps that amount of workers for a period of four years and thereafter that amount is declared as abandoned property under the said Act & transferred to the Labour Welfare Fund. Secondly, under Section 9A of the Act requires each employer and employee to contribute ten rupees and five rupees per month respectively to the funds of the Board.

2. Welfare Schemes: The funds so collected are utilized by the Board for the welfare of industrial workers and their family members by formulating and running different welfare schemes made under Section 10 of the said Act.

D. Welfare Schemes of the Board:

The board is running following welfare schemes:

1. Ex-gratia to the widows/dependants of industrial workers :-

This scheme was introduced in the year 1976. The main aim of the scheme is to give financial help to the widows/dependants of deceased workers. A lump sum amount of Rs.50, 000/- (Rs. Fifty thousand only) is given to each widow/dependant of deceased worker.

2. Scholarship to the children of industrial workers :-

This scheme came into effect in the year 1980 to provide financial help to the children of industrial workers who have secured 50% or above marks in the exam conducted by the Boards / Universities or by schools level. Students from 9th Class to Postgraduate level and diploma, Postgraduate diploma & degree level courses are covered under the scheme. The girls students are provided fifty percent extra amount comparative to boys students.

3. Financial help as Kanyadan to the workers on the occasion of daughter's marriage:-

This scheme was started in the year 2002. Board is running Kanyadan Yojna for the workers on the occasion of marriage of his/her daughter. Under this scheme an amount of Rs. 21000/- is provided to the worker on the occasion of marriage of his/her daughter. The benefit of this scheme is available only up to two daughters. The aim of this scheme is to remove the feeling of burden of girls in the society and to minimize the sense of partiality among boys and girls. This Kanyadan will not affect the eligibility of financial aid to worker from any other sources.

4. Financial Help to Workers for Spectacles :-

This scheme came into existence in the year 1989. Haryana Labour Welfare Board provides an amount of Rs. 500/- or actual cost of spectacles, which ever is less for purchase of spectacles to improve the eye vision of workers. The worker and his/her family or dependents can avail this scheme

5. Excursion-cum-Study Tour to workers :-

This scheme was introduced in the year 1989. The main aim of this scheme is to provide an opportunity to worker and their family members to visit industrial/historical and religious places in the country and increase their knowledge. Under this scheme the reimbursement of fair @ 50/- paise per kilo meter per member on the pattern (Approximately) of Haryana Roadways is made and the reservation charges of sleeper alongwith ordinary fair of journey made through Bhartia Railway is made. The travel can be made by Bhartia Rail/ Roadways/ Public undertaking and Private means.

6. Tour to Religious Places :-

This scheme came in existence on 16-11-2007. The aim of this scheme is to provide an opportunity to industrial workers to visit famous religious places of Haridwar, Rishikesh, Ajmer, Amritsar and Mata Vaishno Devi Mandir. As per this scheme the worker and four members of his/her family can visit above religious places and can stay up to four days. The Board will provide them expenses up to Rs.50/- per member per day or Rs. 250/- per day for whole family whichever is less along with fair of both ways as per terms and conditions defined in above scheme of "Excursion-cum-Study Tour to workers". One worker can also avail this scheme.

7. Cash help to the workers in the event of accident in the establishments :-

This scheme came into effect in 1992. Under this scheme financial assistance is provided to that worker who suddenly met with an accident during the duty period and his/her application is received within a period of one year from the date of issuance of disablement certificate by the Govt. hospital / E.S.I. Board. The financial assistance is provided on the basis of disablement percentage fixed by the Govt. hospital/E.S.I. Board.

8. Mukhya Mantri Sharam Purskar Yojna :-

This scheme was started in the year 2002 with a view to honour efficient workers. The highly efficient, disciplined and social workers are entitled for the Mukhya Mantri Sharam Purskar. The award will establish identity of the awardee workers and it will also inspire other workers for improving their functioning and it will also create atmosphere of industrial peace in the State of Haryana. Under this scheme selected workers will be granted certificates and cash Purskar.

9. Labour Welfare Centers :-

This scheme was introduced by the Board in 1980. The aim of the scheme is to provide training to the family members of the workers and make them self-dependent.
